Sake & Umeshu

Sake is a traditional Japanese alcoholic beverage made from fermented rice. The process of Sake making is more complex than wine or beer and involves removing the outer layers of brown rice (polishing) to reveal the white rice. The level of polishing influences the style and taste of sake.

Our sake offering features a wide range of different styles from sweet and fruit dominant to light and crisp or savory and complex.

Glossary Terms

Junmai: Pure rice sake

Ginjo: Rice polished to 60% or less

Daiginjo: Rice polished to 50% or less

Nama: Unpasteurised

Genshu: No dilution

Vietnamese Coffee by The VIET Coffee Project

7

Served over ice with condensed milk

The VIET Coffee Project's Pleiku Pioneer range uses 100% specialty grade fine Robusta coffee beans sourced from Pleiku in the Gia Lai province of Central Vietnam. The beans are sourced from specialty local Vietnamese coffee farmers before being shipped to Australia and roasted in Sydney.

The Pleiku Pioneer blend is bold & rich having pronounced dark chocolate and brown sugar aromas, with hints of roasted nuts.

TEA by TEA CRAFT

8

White Peony, Ciaqing Co-op, Zhenghe, China

Profile: The first plump white buds that emerge at the beginning of spring are plucked, along with two leaves. This is one of the least-processed of all teas, being only sun-dried then lightly baked, creating a delicate flavour and aroma of white flowers and undergrowth. On the palate there is both a sweet and refreshing tartness of young peaches, with a biscuity note on the backdrop.

Silver Jasmine, Xiaowang, Guangxi, Zhejiang, China

Profile: Plenty of silver tips, this is a green tea that should be recognized. Silver tips are the young buds of the tea plant, prized for their high levels of anti-oxidants. The tea is infused with racks of jasmine blossoms three times to ensure the fragrance does not dissipate quickly.

Honey Orchid Phoenix, Fen Huang Shan, Guangdong, China

Profile: This tea is a direct descendant of the original Guangdong tea noted for its distinctive sweet aroma. Especially on a fast gongfu steep, the sweet honey dew flavour comes to the fore, and the palate is filled with a lasting mint-like cool. This honey orchid grade has a higher melon fragrance and less smoke than its regular phoenix oolong counterpart.

Red Mystic, Mojiang District, Pu-Erh City, Yunnan, China

Profile: These long wisps of organic Yunnan tea are fully oxidized for a sweet, velvety and malty infusion. The aroma is intoxicating, transporting you to the high hills of Yunnan province where it was grown and cared for at an organic micro-lot. It was the grower's vision to have this tea produced with as least disturbance as possible, leaving with it its full leaf size, imparting a range of profiles from each part of the leaf size, imparting a range of profiles from each part of the leaf that makes the infusion intricate and unique.

Peace & Quiet (Tea Craft blend)

Profile: A tonic made for calming the mind, relaxing the body and allowing restfulness. Whole Chamomile bulbs offer notes of honey, nectar and marigold. While rosebuds and lavender round out the floral bouquet. May ideally suit those seeking a natural yet flavourful relaxant.
